

Arrival by airplane

At the airport you can either rent a car (only in Terminal A) and follow the instructions for "Arrival by car" on the top of this page, or:

- you may take a taxi, which will take about 40 minutes to reach GAF's office and will cost about €60
- you can take the airport rapid transit train S-Bahn S1 or S8 (a suburban train running every 10 minutes) to the center station "Hauptbahnhof" which will take about 45 minutes. Then follow the instructions for "Arriving by train".
